

JURYSCOPE

CARRIE MASON

Carrie Mason is a Senior Trial Consultant with more than 20 year of experience in a broad range of cases, including:

Intellectual Property	Insurance Coverage	Products Liability
Securities	Class Actions	Anti-trust
Contract Disputes	Employer Liability	Criminal (prosecution and defense)

Ms. Mason has worked on hundreds of cases, including landmark and high profile cases such as Waymo v. Uber, UC v. Genentech, US v. Martha Stewart, People of California v. Scott Peterson and People of California v. Knoller and Noel (the dog mauling case), Commonwealth v. William H. Cosby, Jr. and People v. Jose Ines Garcia Zarate (the Kate Steinle murder trial). Her experience extends to all aspects of trial consulting: case analysis, theme development, mock trial and focus group research facilitation and analysis, conceptualization of trial graphics, witness preparation (fact and expert, including inventors and corporate officers), juror questionnaire development and evaluation, voir dire, jury selection, daily trial observation/feedback and post-verdict juror interviews. She has consulted on cases in venues throughout the country.

Some recent cases that ended successfully for her clients include: Philips v. ZOLL (District of MA); Idenix v. Gilead (District of DE); W.L. Gore v. C.R. Bard (District of DE); Phoenix Technologies v. VMware (NDCA); Rambus v. Micron and Hynix (San Francisco Superior); Rosen Capital Partners v. Merrill Lynch, a FINRA arbitration; ViaSat v. Loral (SDCA); and WARF v. Apple (WDWI).

Ms. Mason has spoken on panels for the American Business Trial Lawyers, Practicing Law Institute and West Legal Education Center, and teaches continuing legal education programs at law firms.

Ms. Mason graduated from the University of California at Davis with a degree in English Literature, and studied English Literature and Composition at the graduate level. Before entering trial consulting, she taught college English and was a food and music writer.

cmason@juryscope.com