

JURYSCOPE™

JOHANNA CARRANE

Johanna Carrane, President of JuryScope, Inc., has extensive trial consulting experience with an expertise in complex litigation. Having been retained on hundreds of cases, her consulting experience includes using juror and judge mock trials and litigation focus groups to delve into the key issues in a case. Ms. Carrane's work in opening statement analysis and theme development has proven invaluable for our clients in preparation for trial.

Ms. Carrane has prepared hundreds of witnesses foreign and domestic, lay and expert, from all backgrounds and levels of expertise. Her assistance with witnesses allows the trial team to focus on the content of the examination while preparing the best face of that witness and ensuring their testimony supports the message to the jury.

Ms. Carrane has also assisted developing juror questionnaires, preparing judge and attorney jury voir dire questions and, of course, providing in-court assistance in jury selection. She also has extensive experience developing the protocol for and conducting post-trial juror interviews where permitted.

The concentration of Ms. Carrane's consulting work covers several areas, including:

Intellectual Property	Antitrust	Product Liability
Securities	Class Actions	Insurance Coverage
Commercial Litigation	Employer Liability	Criminal Law

The list below includes the case name, area of litigation and location for representative matters for which Ms. Carrane has been retained. As most work is barred from discussion by protective order and confidentiality requirements, these matters are listed with permission from the trial team:
