

JURYScope™

LYNN FAHEY, Ph.D.

Lynn Fahey is a Senior Trial Consultant with JuryScope, Inc. With a background in social science research and statistics, Dr. Fahey brings methodological rigor and social insight to jury consulting. Dr. Fahey has consulting experience in conducting research through mock trials and litigation focus groups, jury selection, preparing witnesses for trial, opening statement analysis, and statistical analysis of juror metadata.

The focus of Dr. Fahey's consulting work covers several areas, including:

Intellectual Property

Securities

Contract Disputes

Class Actions

Dr. Fahey has over 10 years of experience in human behavior research including qualitative and quantitative projects which have been presented at venues including the Population Association of America, The Society for Social and Personality Psychology, and the Southern Demographic Association.

Dr. Fahey graduated with honors from Texas A&M University Corpus Christi with a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology. She then earned a Master's degree in Sociology and a Ph.D. in Sociology from Rice University. In addition to her consulting work with JuryScope, Dr. Fahey is an adjunct professor of Research Methods, Statistics, and Sociology at Mount Saint Mary's University in Los Angeles.

Recent publications include:

"Our Legal System and Juror Education" Law360 (Feb 2019)

"The Millennial Juror's Thoughts on IP" Law360 (July 2018)

"Mitigating Juror Distrust of Business" Law360 (May 2018)

Dr. Fahey is based in California.